

Deniz Tek

Deniz Tek, founding member of the legendary and influential Australian band Radio Birdman, has forged a career melding high-energy rock and roll with finely tuned songwriting. His music is grounded in the roots of late-60's Detroit but incorporates everything from surf to blues to hard rock and punk, extending across four decades and five continents. The Sydney-based, Ann Arbor, born and bred guitarist and singer has performed on or produced more than 30 albums, and written and published nearly 300 songs. A 2007 inductee into the Australian Music Hall of Fame (as part of Radio Birdman), Deniz was voted number 7 in the top 100 Australian guitarists of all time in 2012. The latest CD of his extensive solo career, Detroit, was released in 2013 on Citadel Records in Australia, Europe and Japan, and Career Records in North America. He will be on tour throughout 2014 with his band, the Bad Men (skateboard & punk legends, and identical twins, Art and Steve Godoy).

In addition to Radio Birdman and his solo career, Deniz has performed in many group projects, including:

Iggy & The Stooges, DKT-MC5, New Race (with Ron Asheton and members of MC5), The Visitors, The Golden Breed, Dodge Main (with Wayne Kramer), and three groups with Scott Morgan: Powertrane, Three Assassins and The Rendezvous Band
