

WE'VE COME SO FAR (TO BE HERE TODAY) LYRICS: R. YOUNGER

Falling behind beyond the wave
Coming out of nowhere just to play
We roam the fields cities drains
We've come so far to be here today

Are you ready are you nervous baby
Are you ready to play for us
Is it enough just to be satisfied
Would everything be enough?

For ever more nowhere alone
Never were here, for all we know
We know the score, chances games
We've come so far to be here today

Why so cold to me tonight my baby
Are you holding out on us?
Have you sold them the rights now baby
You are coming home with us

We are the carrion
We wear the shroud
Birds are gathering
The word is out

Always something somewhere waits
Open your door, windows gates
You think we're stupid, sick strange
We've come so far to be here today

Are you ready are you nervous baby
Are you ready to play with us
Is it enough just to be satisfied
Would everything be enough?

Yeah
